

CHIMNEY AT THE AUTOMOBILE RACES

Explains to His Friend the Mysteries of Oldfield's "Smoke Wagon."

AND HOW HE BROKE RECORDS.

"Nutter to it, Bill," said he; "Barney is de Mustard 'er Sure Wid Dat Green Lizzard."

The following story was written for the "News" by E. A. Alford, manager of Barney Oldfield.
It describes the impression the automobile races on an eastern track recently, made on a couple of gamins who had sneaked in via the back fence, and Mr. Moross claims that he overheard the following conversation:

"Nutter to it, Bill; dat guy has just too much nerve to live; dey will need a new fence in a minute."

"Ah, gwan, dat Barney is de goods.
He is de best conductor dat ever ran one of dem benzine luggies. Dat guy ahead of him looks as though he was tied to a post. Did you notice him do de skatting rink around de colver?"

"I heard me sister say dat a cheffier was de newest ting, and dat day is de best ornament to have around de house nobody as dey is all de time."

"Oh, say, fat, come off, dat ain't deir name; dey call dem shufflers. A kid was telling me de oder day dat when Barney was in his gasoline stove around a hat-mile track, dat when he got near de grandstand, dat he let his head out, and dat before it landed on de ground, dat he made de next lap and caught it on de fly. Nutter to it, dey automobile races is de warmest thermally dat ever comdown de place, and Barney is de best at dem posed a buzz wagon."

"What de matter wid dem guys always holerin' here be cums, and dere he goes?
He is here all de time. I guess dat he must be sore on de bully wid de red machine by de way dat he passes him."

"Say, I'll bet de deir dat he need de most dem get even a look at in der race. I guess dat de green lizzard makes de Empire express look like tirty cents."

"Say, fat, I'll bet de deir dat he need de most dem get even a look at in der
de Empire express look like tirty cents."

"Ah, gwan, Bill, he's free laps head now.
Look out, Bill; dere he comes fer de fence again. Cross me cums if he de deir dat he need de most dem get even a look at in der race. I guess dat de green lizzard makes de Empire express look like tirty cents."

"Say, fat, look at de lobster on de track. Look out, you'll get yer leg broke in half. Sleepy Sid said dat his car was hit yesterday when dey was racing dere amoke carts and dat he was knocked as dead as a bunch of hay. Say, were in de horrible Swood feller dat was goin' to beat Barney last week before de race com here?"

"Oh, he ain't one, two, tree, seen. He got de Dragon Hoofs when he saw de green lizzard brend a few frets."

"Say, Bill, who is dat brakeman on de twistin' on de brake on de red box car?
And say, Bill, would he be sore when we tell him dat we hote had cur mit on de Dragon 'ere de cap saw us?"

"Oh, nutter to it; if I ever get a bunch of cart wheels, I will get me a shidoodle wagon; dere de real McCoy. I broke me sister's piano stool practising wid it as sterling gear in de parlor and I got lots of pointers from de gasoline stove before I got it up. I guess dat de feller was so far behind in drivin' a lobster motor. He looks like a wife fish. See de guy dat is lookin' behind all de time."

"Say, why don't you push on de dashboard and get a Jerry on yerself. Say, Bill, look at de bulidie comin' around de corner. I heard de feller Webb say dat it say dat it was de sky scraper, and say, look at de guy wid de tea kittle on steam.
Way dat he hove dat bunch of wheels tradin' on de back of de feller. Say, dat Barney's buzz buggy is de mulepower, and dat it goes as fast as it does. De feller dat he butts in head of dem oder fellers you would think dat he had a goat ranch. I heard a feller say dat his machine was a German make. Mercedes, and another guy say dat he owned a French Pan hard. From de color and noise of Barney's I guess dat dis is Irish."
"Well, me fer de races every day."

CANTILLON A MAGNATE.

Former Player and Umpire of Chicago Joins the Western League.

Having put in the best years of his more than strenuous career in baseball as a player, an umpire and a manager, Joseph Cantillon of Chicago has finally succeeded in blossoming out as a full-fledged magnate, and is now the owner of the Des Moines club in the Western league.

This Des Moines deal was consummated at a conference between the former owner of the Des Moines club and Cantillon, which was held in the Iowa metropolis on Saturday. Cantillon secured fifty-nine of the eighty shares of stock by paying cash, and at once took charge of the plant and the team.

Des Moines, despite the fact that the club is a tailender in a six-club league this season, cleaned up a profit of over $100,000 on the year, and as a baseball interesting it looks pretty good, notwithstanding the fact that Cantillon was forced to pay a fancy price for his stock.

Cantillon returned to Chicago recently and naturally talked for publication.
"Yes, I have bought the franchise, plant and good will of the Des Moines club," said Cantillon, and I think it will prove a good investment. The fact is I believe that baseball is about to enjoy a genuine boom, and that before the world is five years older the owner of a winning ball team in a good league will make all kinds of money on his investment. Des Moines is a good ball town, and with a winning team it will prove the biggest sort of a winner. I have been working on a salary trying to make money for other people long enough. Now I intend to try and make a few dollars on my own account."

BRITT TO MEET WINNER.

Will be Matched Against Young Corbett Or Battling Nelson.

The Yosemite club, at San Francisco, will exert all its influence to secure Mechanics' pavilion later than Dec. 10. If it cannot get it the management has no desire to pull off its show next month so close to the Nelson-Corbett battle, which will occur on Nov. 29.

Harry Corbett, who is the leading spirit of the Yosemite club, said: "I hope to hire the big building for the fight during the holiday week. In regard to a fight he remarked: "The best match we can pull off in December would be with the winner of the next fight. That's the card. It would be a better card than Pitt and Gank. I am eager to get the pavilion for a later date, so we can have the fight. I think Britt is ready to take on the winner."

FOOTBALL GAME TOMORROW.

West Side H. S. and All Hallows Team Will Clash.

On Walker's field tomorrow afternoon will be another gridiron battle in the high school championship race. The clashing aggregations will be the West Side High School and All Hallows Collegiate. The former team has had clear have not practised as they should have in some pretty hard licks, and expect to give the H. S. boys the fight of their lives. The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock, and will doubtless be witnessed by a large crowd of enthusiastic students.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said that he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago.

Since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it.

For coughs and colds it has no equal."

PRESIDENT WILL

VISIT THE EXPOSITION.

Washington, Nov. 10.—President Roosevelt has purchased an exhibition on Saturday, Nov. 26. He made this pre-arrangement tonight to a committee from St.

Louis, headed by Mayor Wells, who came to Washington especially for the purpose of inviting him to visit the fair. The probability is that the president will remain in St. Louis until the night of Sunday, Nov. 27.

The president has been anxious to go to St. Louis to see the fair ever since the opening. However, the presidential campaign impelled him to remain in the east. It is expected that this president and those who will accompany him will leave here on Thursday night, and will reach St. Louis early Saturday morning. The invitation to the president, it is understood, is comprehensive enough to include any other persons whom he may wish to have with him and some of the members of the cabinet are likely to accompany him.

Arrangements will be made for a fitting program for president day. For the Sunday following, should there be no disappointment of the committee's prediction that the president will remain in St. Louis during that day, arrangements for his entertainment also will be made.

Loggers Are Drowned.

Yankee, B. C., Nov. 10.—News of a double drowning was brought here by the steamer Casar today. The accident occurred in Johnston Strait. Angus McLeod and Wade Johnson, loggers, were drowned through the capsizing of a sailboat. James O'Toole, another logger, was in the boat, with the two drowned men, had a narrow escape from death. He managed to reach shore in an exhausted condition after seeing his companions sink to their death.
